I take, O Cross, thy shadow for my abiding place.
I ask no other sunshine than the sunshine of His face;
Content to let the world go by, to know no gain nor loss,
My sinful self my only shame, my glory all the Cross.

FOREWORD

"AT sometime in the life of every person the cross becomes an experience. It is no longer a symbol, beautifully jeweled and shot through with light rays. When once accepted, it is the Light itself."

It is in the spirit of this truth that the purpose of Eastern Nazarene College becomes clear — to make the Cross of Christ a vital experience in the life of each of her students.

In the pursuit of this task, the theme of the 1962 NAUTILUS endeavors to show how the Cross overshadows each of the phases of our college life. It thereby records the integration of the Christian dynamic with the

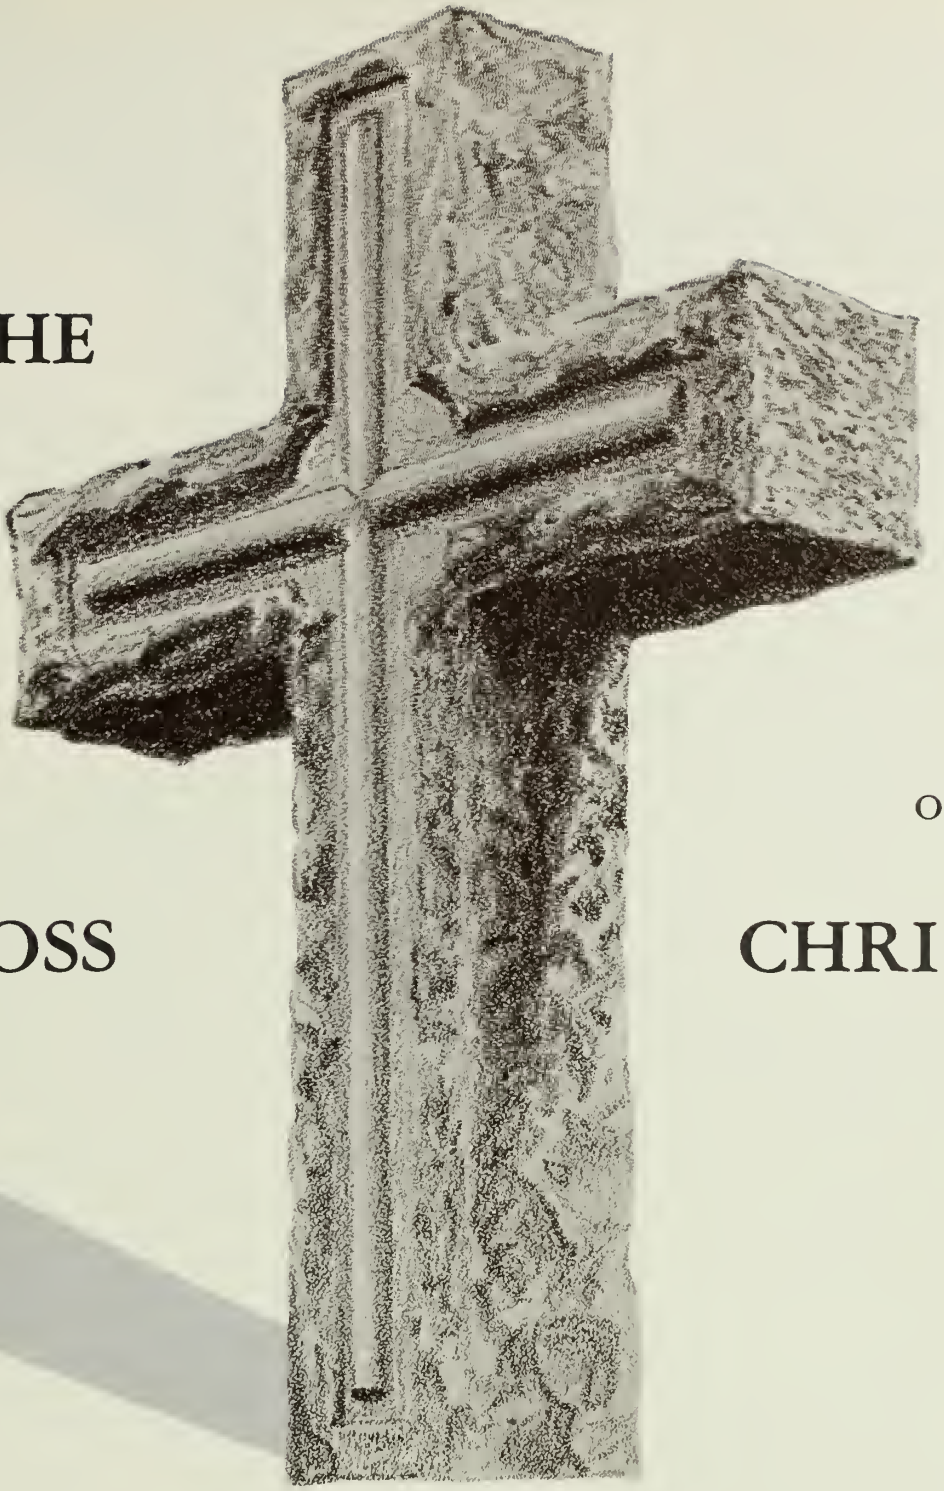
THE CROSS OF CHRIST . . .



"Jerusalem gave us crosses — three of them: two for malefactors, one for the Saviour of the world . . . But Jerusalem gave us only one inexplicably opened tomb in a hillside cave on Easter morning. In this lies our only guarantee that 'because He lives, we, too, shall live.' The cross of Christ is creative, redemptive, ultimate." "To this dear Cross the eyes of men are turning, and for the love of Christ men's hearts are yearning."

. . . motivates learning

I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

John 8:12

Unending search for truth in the illumination of the cross . . . exploring God's creation . . . wonders of the universe . . . the cross — the beginning of wisdom.

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

. . . stimulates creativity

Worshipping God through music . . . expression of the inner self . . . creators with God in the light of the cross . . . development of potential . . . incentive of the cross.

Rendezvous with Christ at the foot of the cross . . . my glory all the cross; loss of self . . . gain of the cross . . . hope of men — the cross

. . . transcends self-interest

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

DEDICATION

DR. MULLEN . . .

You have been faithful in revealing the Cross in attitude, in word, and in life.

You have led us to love truth, to search for it, and to live by it as the Cross illuminates it.

You, in your devotion to God and to the task that He has given, have challenged, inspired and encouraged others to seek the highest and best in Christian living.

You have earned the respect and admiration of students and colleagues by your consistent Christian life, centered in the Christ of the Cross.

We, the NAUTILUS staff, dedicate the 1962 NAUTILUS to you, Dr. Wilbur H. Mullen, whose life speaks in unuttered tones . . . "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of my Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

THE PRESIDENT

There are no more vital years in life than those which are spent on a college campus. And when the college has Christian purposes and ideals the opportunities for personal enrichment are almost beyond measure. More often than not, it is the period between registration as a Freshman and graduation as a Senior, when the great decisions of life are made.

It is my earnest hope that those of you who have spent the year 1961-62 in this exciting fellowship may have developed socially, achieved scholastically and found spiritual life and assurance "in the shadow of the cross."

DEAN EMERITUS

Scholarly guidance — correlation of literature, life, and faith . . . loving through service — I serve Him because I love him. I love Him because He first loved me . . . humbly, constantly, radiantly, she walks in the steps of the Saviour . . . with child-like faith and keen spiritual discernment — "All the way my Saviour leads me" . . . presenting Christ for triumphant living — "God's way is the only way — dare to take it."

. . . OVERSHADOWING

"Where is God?" inquired the mind;
"To His presence I am blind.
I have scanned each star and sun,
Traced the certain course they run;
I have weighed them in my scale,
And can tell when each will fail;
From the caverns of the night
I have measured earth and sky,
Read each zone with steady eye;
But no sign of God appears
In the glory of the Spheres."
But the heart spake wistfully,
"Hast thou looked on Calvary?"

. . . OVERSHADOWING

The Cross, O Christ,
Thy wonderous love revealing,
Awakes our hearts
as with the light of morn,
And pardon o'er our sinful spirits stealing Tells us that we,
in Thee, have been reborn.
Like echoes to sweet temple bells replying,
Our hearts, O Lord
make answer to Thy love;
And we will love
Thee with a love undying
Till we are gathered to Thy home above.

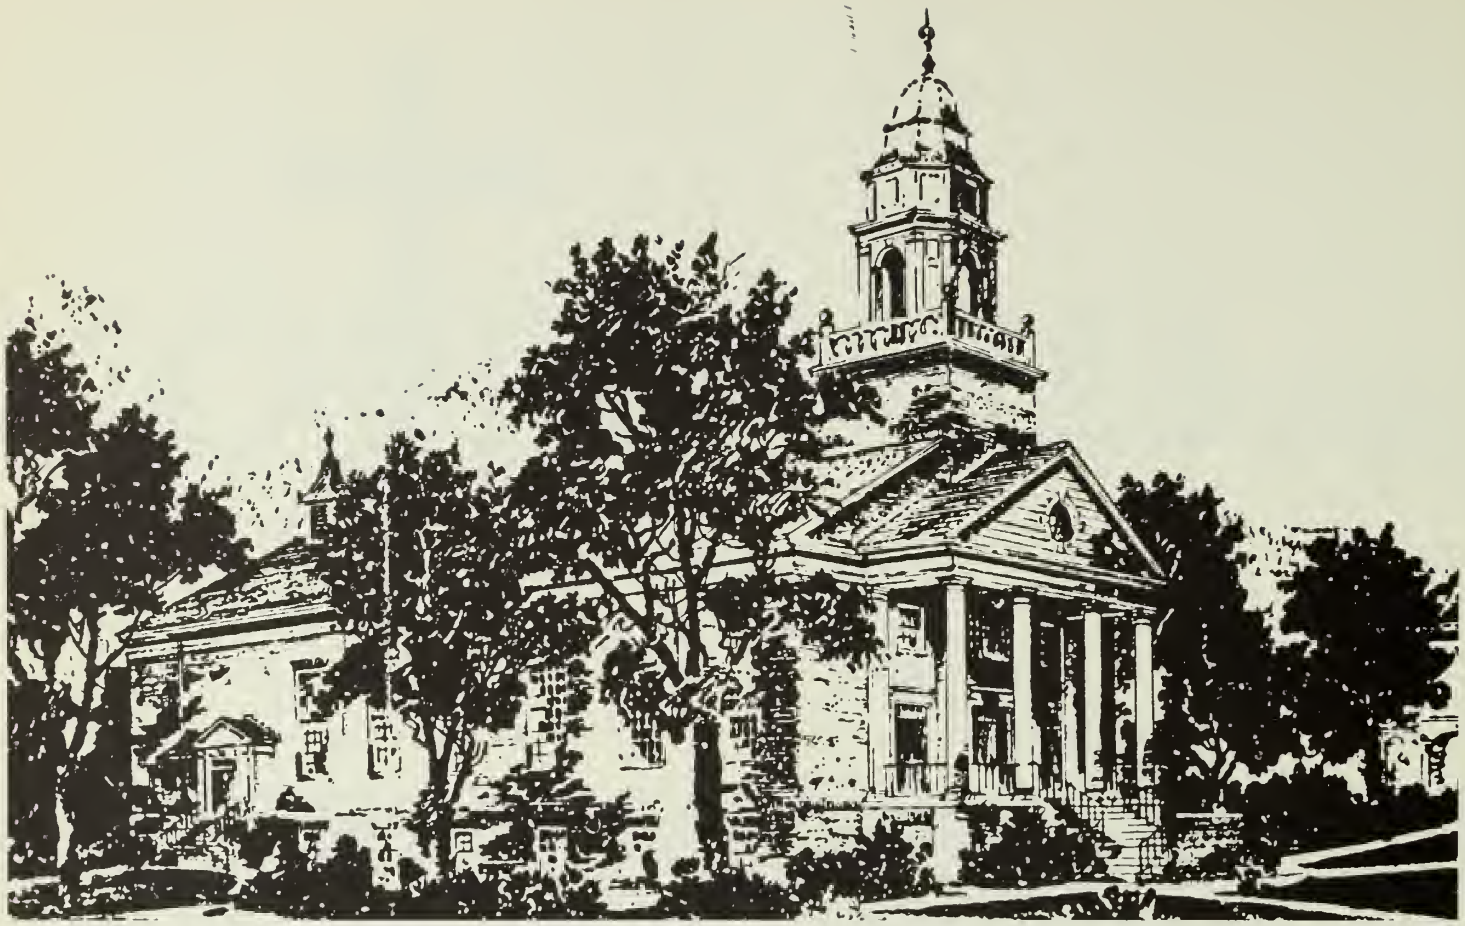
Thomas Tiplady

OUR DEVOTION



THE WOLLASTON CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE - Wollaston-Massachusetts - Edgar T.P. Walker Archt
12 State St Boston
Sept 12, 1957

TO BEAR HIS CROSS

I heard Bishop Fairbairn of the Free Methodist Church say that Thomas Shepherd's hymn "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone" was originally entitled "Must Simon Bear the Cross Alone." I think I see the point. Simon, the Cyrenian, was compelled to bear the cross after Jesus and all who truly follow Him must also bear it.

For the cross is not a lapel emblem, a jewelry decoration or even a symbol widely used by church architectures. Neither is it a mystical identification with Jesus of Nazareth in some kind of an empathic suffering of that terrible day outside of Jerusalem nearly twenty centuries ago.

It is rather the bearing of the "scandal" of the gospel in a sophisticated age. It is the steadfast assertion of spiritual truths in a materialistic time. It is the living of a holy life in a very sinful world. It is standing and living for Christ when every part of the contemporary scene seems to deny Him.

So all of us today who would claim Christ as Saviour, seek to follow His way, and be known as Christians, must bear His cross. This is not sad news, but good news; for if we suffer with Him we shall participate in His victory.

. . . OVERSHADOWING

When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way
From the Cross
  the radiance streaming Adds more luster to the day.
Bane and blessing,
  pain and pleasure,
By the Cross
  are sanctified;
Peace is there
  that knows no measure,
Joys that thro'
  all time abide.

SENIOR

Chorus:

The Senior trip was so much fun
With all the lads and lasses
Why must we all go back to school
And start again with classes.

We traveled up to New Hampshire
To try our luck at skiing
The Whitney's lodge was where we stayed
Skating, sliding, skiing.

The first day out we all were brave
Although the rain was falling
We fought the ice, we prayed for snow
As one to all were calling . . . .

We all were starved at dinner time
The food was oh, so pleasing
The evening went by all too fast
With games and Rook and teasing

At eight o'clock on Tuesday morn
The Seniors all were fancy
The only ones who stayed in bed
Were Carolyn and Nancy.

Jerry was a pro on skis
He even learned to zig zag
Bulter made it to the top
But crashed into a building

Barb and Gay then finally learned
To ride up on the ski tow
But every time they started down
They landed on their — you know.

Chief Barefoot recalls the past.

'The Senior trip was so much fun" sing the

SNEAK

Mahood and Weslow on the slope
Were quite a slight to see
They slid and fell so many times
That soon they took to skating

In learning how to play Rook well
McKnight was quite enlightened
But Nancy showed up all of us
And all the fun was heightened.

Stan just stayed inside and read
We also played some checkers
Nick, our loyal President
Was champion chess player.

Beth and Ronnie skated fine
They really gave a show
Beth showed Ronnie how to twist
While he was going backward.

The Woodworths really skated well
They put us all to shame
Diana worked on puzzles too . .
While Fred slept in a chair.

The Taylors were a sight to see
While sliding down a hill.
They both were sure a lot of fun
We got to know them well.

The trip was over all too soon
We wished we could stay longer
But all good things must finally end
And still we have our memories.

Food for thought.

Battle of wits.

SIGMA DELTA ZETA

REMEMBER . . .

When those sugar cubes just wouldn't hit that closet?

When witness Williamson swore?

How she justified it?

When those hairnets just had to go?

This day you thought would never come?

When you almost yielded?

. . . OVERSHADOWING

Take my life and let it be Consecrated, Lord to Thee.
Take my hands and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love.

Take my lips and let them be Filled with messages for Thee.
Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold.

NAZARENE
PUBLISHING HOUSE

"THE FULL GOSPEL"

50th ANNIVERSARY

Leaders in the Church of the Nazarene recognized early the need for strong institutions if the church was to effect far-reaching results for Christ. For this reason substantial centers for education and a capable publishing program followed closely the building of churches.

You and your families are the key to this story. As we look together into this golden year of the Publishing House, may we thank you for your support and wish you, the class of 1962, success crowned with God's approval throughout your lives.

The folks at your
Nazarene Publishing House

AMERICAN YEARBOOK CO., CAMBRIDGE, MARYLAND

I take, O Cross, thy shadow for my abiding place.
I ask no other sunshine than the sunshine of His face;
Content to let the world go by, to know no gain nor loss,
My sinful self my only shame, my glory all the Cross.
